

IN THE COURTS

Labor and Capital Testing Their Rights at Homestead.

Preparing Papers for the Arrest of Manager Frick and Others.

M'LUCKIE'S PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION BEGINS TO-MORROW.

Gov. Pattison Welcomed by Rain and a Salute of Guns—The Great Steel Plant Still Idle—Both Sides Confident of Ultimate Victory—How the Workmen Resist the Arrest of Their Comrades—Frick's Record.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 19.—Both sides are resting on their arms this morning, but there is no telling at what moment the machinery of the law may again be in motion. A large crowd began to gather around the office of Alderman McMaster at an early hour and the Alderman himself put in an appearance considerably earlier than usual, indicating that some of the men against whom warrants are out would come in and surrender. But as the day wore on it became evident that the much-wanted men had no such intention, and this was confirmed shortly after Judge Magee had set the hearing on the question of bail for Mr. McLuckie for to-morrow morning, when word was received to the effect that Ross and his associates would keep under cover until the hearing had taken place, when they would appear of their own volition, accompanied by bondsmen. When this intimation had been received the constables deputized to serve the warrants asked for instructions, but were told to follow their own inclinations. Up to 10 o'clock they were in doubt whether to go to Homestead in the afternoon or await to-morrow's developments. No additional informations had been laid against any of the mill men this morning, although the Alderman intimated that he might have some work in that line later in the day.

PROSECUTIONS AGAINST FRICK.

Attorney Brennan said he doubted whether the informations against Frick, Carnegie, Potter, Lovejoy and Robert and William Plunkerton would be prepared to-day, as the papers would have to be drawn with exceeding care. These prosecutions were decided upon at last night's meeting of the Homestead Advisory Committee. The programme of the defense is to secure a long roll of competent bondsmen, so that if the decision of the court to-morrow is favorable, the men can be bailed out as fast as arrested, without being compelled to spend even a night in the County Jail.

The officials of the Carnegie Steel Co. here do not appear to be worried over any informations to be made against them. Secretary Lovejoy smiled when asked if he had arranged for bail and said: "We have no fears of any trials of information that do not believe that can be well-advised as to take this step. They were the trespassers and aggressors, and are in no position to charge any crime on the company or its agents. It is, of course, possible that some of us may be arrested, but we have no intention to do any illegal act, such as that would be. I have often stated we will have no trials of any kind, and we will not have them."

Some of the bystanders thought Ross referred to the cannon practice of the mill men so short a time ago when the Pinkerton barge was a target.

WAS IN THE NAVY.

Ross, however, had a more pleasant experience for him than the one in the navy;

you know for ten years and four days;

of guerrillas is wandering around the town, having a good time. He is undoubtedly the most popular man at the convention. A dozen men could get drunk in one hour. It is the General's desire to turn over all his invitations to them. Most of these he declines, but now and then with a smile on his face he says, "I'll have a good time and tell a good story between drinks. The General has an apt greeting for every man who is brought up and introduced to him; and when he does, the General's morning up in Treasurer Lon Stephens' headquarters. Stephens came up to the General with Will Trick, and when the General put out his hand and shook the other heartily.

"Trick, Trick, off he say?" the old captain asked, holding the hand of the new member. "What was your father's name?"

"William Trick, too," said the other.

"We'll do the same," he said.

"In Bonnville."

"Oh, yes, I thought I knew him," the General said, a satisfied expression coming over his face as he took the General's hand.

"I rubbed his store in '63."

And the General was so glad at remembering the incident that he took Mr. Trick off to one side and went over the whole story with him.

FOR TREASON.

A Move for the Arrest of Carnegie in Scotland.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 19.—Members of the Advisory Committee are in a unit in desiring the prosecution of Mr. Carnegie, and there will be deep and bitter disappointment if the association attorney decided that the charge will not hold.

Mr. Brennan, the attorney of the Amalgamated Association, has advised the association officials to communicate with the State Department with a view to securing the arrest in Scotland and the extradition from that country of Mr. Andrew Carnegie. Mr. Brennan is of the opinion that Mr. Carnegie can be held on the charge of treason in maintaining a force of unauthorized armed men without the legal or constitutional right to do so, and if a warrant in his case is granted a strong effort will be made to have him brought to this country for trial. The Advisory Committee of the strike claims to have in its possession evidence sufficient to prove not only that the Carnegie company brought a large number of men into Pennsylvania for an illegal purpose, but that it also imported weapons sufficient to arm the entire force.

RELEASED THIS MORNING.

Mrs. Kate Richmond Spent the Night in the House of Good Shepherd.

Mrs. Kate Richmond, whose alleged abduction from the Third District Police Station to the House of Good Shepherd last night by her two sons and Rev. Father Watson created something of a sensation, was released this morning from the latter institution. Mrs. Richmond, who is 50 years of age, was arrested between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Officer Fanning and locked up in the Third District Police Station. She remained there until 9 o'clock when, becoming suddenly very sick, she was sent to the Dispensary for treatment. Some time after she returned to the police station two sons secured her release with the intention of taking her to the House of Good Shepherd. Father Watson, Rev. Dr. Edward Watson of St. Lawrence O'Toole's Church, of which parish she is a resident, were conveyed to the gate of the institution and the attendants took charge of her, her escorts returning to the police station.

At the Third District Station this morning Sergt. McFarland told a Post-Dispatch reporter that when she was taken into custody in the neighborhood, she had been arrested on charges of drunkenness, but never having been brought into the station she was released. The woman became very indignant and protested against going there. Her verbal protest was not heard, screaming like a mad woman and fighting her attendants with all her strength. Her screams and resistance caused a great number of people, who became greatly excited on hearing her frantic cries of "abduction!" "Murder!" "Murder!" She was then powerfully and thrust inside the gate of the institution and the attendants took charge of her, her escorts returning to the police station.

At the Third District Station this morning Sergt. McFarland told a Post-Dispatch reporter that when she was taken into custody in the neighborhood, she had been arrested on charges of drunkenness, but never having been brought into the station she was released. The woman was a woman of about 50 years of age, but owing to her habits, had the appearance of being nearer 60. Her two sons, he stated, were both working men and young men, who were using their utmost endeavors to reclaim their mother.

At the time of the reporter met Father Thomas J. Walsh of St. Bridget's Church, whose name had been connected with the affair of last night, it having been reported that he had been taken into custody and that either Father Thomas J. Walsh or Father Wm. Walsh, the senior priest of St. Bridget's, had taken her. Very little was known about the priest, but the reporter met him at the station. The priest stated he knew nothing of the case, the woman or her family except what he read in the morning papers. At the time of the reporter met Father Wm. Walsh, the senior priest of St. Bridget's, who stated that the latter had been for a week past enjoying his summer vacation at Hampton Beach.

At the House of Good Shepherd the Mother Superior stated that the woman had been brought into the institution and the woman had been brought there in a cab about 12:15 this morning, accompanied by Father Watson, and the two were looking the sons of Mrs. Richmond. The woman, who was apparently in the prime of life, was very pale and was finally thrust in at the gate and taken charge of by the attendants of the institution. She was soon quieted, however, and, having been put to bed, was soon asleep.

Mr. O'Neill's amendment regarding the employment of Pinkerton detectives was agreed to, 102; nays, 33.

HATCH'S FIRM FAITH

He Believes the Anti-Option Bill Sure of Passage.

DEMOCRATS MUST SUPPORT IT OR LOSE IN THE SOUTH.

Billbusting Alone Prevents its Immediate Success—Nearly all the Senate Amendments to the World's Fair Bill Defeated—Sunday Closing Sustained Anti-Pinkerton Legislation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—Farmer Hatch has not the slightest doubt of the anti-option bill becoming a law before adjournment. "I know whereof I speak," he said to the Post-Dispatch correspondent this morning. "I don't care if its opponents in the Senate do continue to filibuster. Those in favor of the bill are in two-thirds majority, and they can and will stay here as long as the filibusters. The bill is bound to pass."

"How about the House?" Washburn asked.

"The House is all right and the bill will pass easily. Don't have any doubt of that. The Democrats will be compelled to vote for it if they don't want to lose several Southern States."

ACT OF A MADMAN.

George Thompson Slashes Deputy Constable Thomas Hand With a Razor.

IN SELF-DEFENSE THE CONSTABLE FATAL WOUNDS HIS ANTAGONIST.

The Constable Went Into Thompson's Place to Read Him a Writ of Eviction for Non-Payment of Rent, and Without a Word the Negro Attacked Him—Police News.

At 12:30 o'clock to-day a desperate encounter took place between Deputy Constable Thomas Hand and George Thompson, the lewd negro who called himself "Jesus Christ," in which Hand received two gashes of a razor in the hands of the negro, who was shot by the constable and perhaps fatally injured.

Thompson keeps a barber shop at No. 5 North Laves and the constable was serving him notice of non-payment of rent when the difficulty took place. The property occupied by Thompson belongs to the Connecticut Life Insurance Co., and Thompson owed $300 to the company. He was brought into Justice of the Peace Pat Kane's court and went to-day to effect his removal.

The constable, armed with a razor from a drawer and sprang at the deputy.

Hand not expecting the attack was taken by surprise and the sudden and fierce was the negro's attack. He kept retreating towards the door, and his foot encountering an obstruction, he fell. Another cut came nearer home, and narrowly failed to cut the constable's throat from ear to ear.

He sprang to his feet and, still striking with the razor, Hand fought him off with his feet, and while doing so, cut the negro's throat.

He struck twice, one ball striking the negro in the right hand and the other penetrating the body on the right side.

When a constable was all he could do, and when arrested it was thought that the negro was bleeding internally. The constable struck him in the face, said James and Officers Jeremiah Curtin and James Murphy. Officers Curtin and Murphy were the first to arrive and they placed the negro in a carriage and the wounded were taken to the dispensary, where his injuries were pronounced dangerous, but not mortal.

Hand was taken to Justice Kane's office and attended by Dr. F. L. Priest. The examination found that no veins or arteries were severed and sewed up the wounds.

The Deputy Constable Hand was taken to the Four Courts, and when the facts in the case were made known was released.

Chief Dispensary Surgeon Dr. Priest examined the constable and said the ball went clear through his body, penetrating the right lung, and that the negro was bleeding internally and was in a dangerous condition.

The Wilson woman produced the shreds of a dress as evidence in court this morning.

Burglars Sentenced.

John Best pleaded guilty in the Criminal Court this morning to having burglarized Patrick Noland's shop on St. Ferdinand street, of some tools and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Three other prisoners, namely, Ralph Scott, Fred Cooper and Peter Basler, then decided to follow suit and examine the case. Scott was given three years for burglarizing a residence on King's highway. Cooper got one year and Basler six months in the work-house for stealing a cow.

Eddie Morris, a juvenile burglar, was released on his own recognition. The boy is lame and claimed that it was his first offense and that other boys had led him into it.

Identified.

Harry Krause called at the Four Courts this morning and identified William Sullivan as the man who robbed him of a watch on Sixth and Market streets on the night of July 4. Sullivan was arrested by Detectives Frase and Fitzgerald. Three of the coats found on the ball were clear through his body, penetrating the right lung, and that the negro was bleeding internally and was in a dangerous condition.

Strikers Get Money and Men.

The spirits of the striking mill hands were considerably revived this morning when the Executive Committee paid out $1,300 to the machine hands. The money came from the treasury and from donations from the various local labor organizations. A large sum, it is claimed, is being collected in the East for the strikers. The strike is to last to-day, and say that they will maintain their fight to the end. The strikers report that they planned to strike to the last, and that they will remain in line under bonds of $1,000 each. The City Solicitor will at once begin impeachment proceedings in the Franklin to oust the Councilmen from their seats.

ROADING COUNCILMEN.

TOLEDO, O., July 19.—The Toledo City Councilmen, who were recently indicted for alleged bootleg in connection with certain legislation, were taken into court this morning. The attorney general stated that they were not ready for trial at the time and Judge Harmon set the cases down for the first day of the September term of court. They will remain in line under bonds of $1,000 each. The City Solicitor will at once begin impeachment proceedings in the Franklin to oust the Councilmen from their seats.

ON A GRAVE CHARGE.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 19.—A man named Glover, 40 years of age, living at Manchester in Clark County, was arrested last night by Constable Jim Hart on the charge of outraging his daughter, a girl 16 years of age. Glover is a farmer and in good circumstances.

THEY WILL NOT FRATERNIZE.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 19.—Lieut. Gov. Kirkpatrick will arrive here on Wednesday and will remain a month. He will stay among the Thousand Islands on the same day as President Harrison and Gov. Flower. Without the permission of the Governor-General the Lieutenant-Governor does not go outside of the limits of the province and therefore can't frequent the city. The Lieutenant-Governor and the President is not expected to leave his limits. The Lieutenant-Governor is to be present at the opening of the Legislature on the 21st Washington avenue, and Samuel and Emmet Dale of 1105 Chestnut street.

Before Judge Claiborne.

ROBERT D'INNE and Christian Kummer, the two men Mr. Charles Green had arrested last week for malicious destruction of property, were tried before Judge Claiborne to-day and discharged on the evidence. Aaron Parker was sentenced to thirty days in jail for an assault last night on Louis B. Miller, a negro, who was robbing against Herbert Cornwell and Joseph Curran was dismissed for want of prosecution.

Charged With Fraud.

Selma Watson, a contractor, had Daniel Flynn, arrested this afternoon on a charge of fraud in connection with some hay which he sold Watson yesterday. Watson also accused Flynn of having been sent to him to collect for weight of the hay and wanted a warrant for perjury as well as fraud, but Mr. Estep thought that one warrant was enough.

Hit With a Club.

Wm. Brester, who lives on Twenty-fourth and Biddle streets, was found on Tenth and Wash streets about 1 o'clock this morning with a cut about three inches long on his head. He said that he had been hit with a club by a man with whom he had had a fight, but he could not identify the man. The wound was sewed up at the City Dispensary and Brester was then sent home.

Before Judge Morris.

May Johnson and Etta Johnson were each fined $10 by Judge Morris to-day. They had a fight on Sixth and Elm streets last night. Julius Bittner, bookkeeper for the Excelsior Brewery, was tried on the charge of drawing a revolver on one of the drivers but was discharged on the evidence.

Transference of a Dollar.

Charles Dowdy, colored, was arrested by officers McFarland and Barthold last night on a charge of petit larceny. Edw. Loving charged with pickpocketing a silver dollar from his vest while he was up in the stable at 908 North Jefferson avenue.

First Electric Railway.

WORCESTER, Mass., July 19.—The New York New Haven & Hartland Railway will probably be the first steam railroad in the world to substitute electricity for steam on a large scale. This road was known to be constructing a four-track line, but it was not to be equipped with special reference to the use of electricity instead of steam to power the freight and passenger cars over the portion of the line between Worcester and New Haven, a distance of seventy-four miles. When the plant is ready the distance between the two cities will be covered in sixty minutes.

NO LONGER A SUMMER RESORT.
The Citizens of St. Louis Compelled to Remove Their Costs.

The summer-resort weather at St. Louis has been enjoying for some weeks past received a sudden check to-day, and as early as 9 a.m. the citizens testified to the unusual warmth of old Sol's smiles by throwing aside coats and hats whenever opportunity offered, and indulging in numerous and eager mopping of face and neck, on which the perspiration glistened copiously.

The sun rose in a clear sky and as he climbed valiantly up the heavens his rays grew hotter and hotter every moment, and the weather which had been experienced earlier in the season, the citizens got the sudden transition in temperature more oppressive than any previous period in regard to the heat. The heat was great, in regard to the heat were great, the Signal Service gives no promise of any relief soon, as the weather continues high temperature.

The hot weather having really arrived and being expected to continue for some time to come, the citizens of St. Louis have taken to the City Dispensary and City Hospital to have warning and begun to lay in a large supply of what got the name of "razor" and was necessary for protection, the salvation of which was to fall to the heat were great, the Signal Service gives no promise of any relief soon, as the weather continues high temperature.

CHICAGO, July 19.—While a wedding ceremony was being conducted in the residence of John McHenry, at the corner of State and Forty-ninth streets, last night, a woman's cries for help stopped the festivities. Jacob Ewald, who was attending the wedding, together with Adam Saranda, hastened to the former's house near by, and there they found Mrs. Gustina Ewald in a front upstairs room, where she had been forced by an unknown man. Ewald broke open the door, which had been locked from the inside, and followed by Saranda, seized his wife's assailant by the throat, dragging him to the room where the wedding was taking place. The Governor is now at sea. But little time remains to prepare the exhibit, and with new men at the helm it is not known how much will be accomplished before the opening of the great exposition. It is thought that the money already on hand will be put into exhibits in the various department buildings, and that the building will be constructed. At any rate the State has $75,000 which must be expended at Chicago, and something will be provided to show for this sum.

On July 5 a number of colored people had given a big lawn party at Goods and Kinner's avowed residence. Katie and Clara Winkler, who were taken to the dispensary, where her injuries were pronounced dangerous, but not mortal.

Three other prisoners, namely, Ralph Scott, Fred Cooper and Peter Basler, then decided to follow suit and examine the case. Scott was given three years for burglarizing a residence on King's highway. Cooper got one year and Basler six months in the work-house for stealing a cow.

Eddie Morris, a juvenile burglar, was released on his own recognition. The boy is lame and claimed that it was his first offense and that other boys had led him into it.

Strikers Get Money and Men.

The spirits of the striking mill hands were considerably revived this morning when the Executive Committee paid out $1,300 to the machine hands. The money came from the treasury and from donations from the various local labor organizations. A large sum, it is claimed, is being collected in the East for the strikers. The strike is to last to-day, and say that they will maintain their fight to the end. The strikers report that they planned to strike to the last, and that they will remain in line under bonds of $1,000 each. The City Solicitor will at once begin impeachment proceedings in the Franklin to oust the Councilmen from their seats.

ROADING COUNCILMEN.

TOLEDO, O., July 19.—The Toledo City Councilmen, who were recently indicted for alleged bootleg in connection with certain legislation, were taken into court this morning. The attorney general stated that they were not ready for trial at the time and Judge Harmon set the cases down for the first day of the September term of court. They will remain in line under bonds of $1,000 each. The City Solicitor will at once begin impeachment proceedings in the Franklin to oust the Councilmen from their seats.

THEY WILL NOT FRATERNIZE.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 19.—Lieut. Gov. Kirkpatrick will arrive here on Wednesday and will remain a month. He will stay among the Thousand Islands on the same day as President Harrison and Gov. Flower. Without the permission of the Governor-General the Lieutenant-Governor does not go outside of the limits of the province and therefore can't frequent the city. The Lieutenant-Governor and the President is not expected to leave his limits. The Lieutenant-Governor is to be present at the opening of the Legislature on the 21st Washington avenue, and Samuel and Emmet Dale of 1105 Chestnut street.

Before Judge Claiborne.

ROBERT D'INNE and Christian Kummer, the two men Mr. Charles Green had arrested last week for malicious destruction of property, were tried before Judge Claiborne to-day and discharged on the evidence. Aaron Parker was sentenced to thirty days in jail for an assault last night on Louis B. Miller, a negro, who was robbing against Herbert Cornwell and Joseph Curran was dismissed for want of prosecution.

Charged With Fraud.

Selma Watson, a contractor, had Daniel Flynn, arrested this afternoon on a charge of fraud in connection with some hay which he sold Watson yesterday. Watson also accused Flynn of having been sent to him to collect for weight of the hay and wanted a warrant for perjury as well as fraud, but Mr. Estep thought that one warrant was enough.

Hit With a Club.

Wm. Brester, who lives on Twenty-fourth and Biddle streets, was found on Tenth and Wash streets about 1 o'clock this morning with a cut about three inches long on his head. He said that he had been hit with a club by a man with whom he had had a fight, but he could not identify the man. The wound was sewed up at the City Dispensary and Brester was then sent home.

Before Judge Morris.

May Johnson and Etta Johnson were each fined $10 by Judge Morris to-day. They had a fight on Sixth and Elm streets last night. Julius Bittner, bookkeeper for the Excelsior Brewery, was tried on the charge of drawing a revolver on one of the drivers but was discharged on the evidence.

Transference of a Dollar.

Charles Dowdy, colored, was arrested by officers McFarland and Barthold last night on a charge of petit larceny. Edw. Loving charged with pickpocketing a silver dollar from his vest while he was up in the stable at 908 North Jefferson avenue.

First Electric Railway.

WORCESTER, Mass., July 19.—The New York New Haven & Hartland Railway will probably be the first steam railroad in the world to substitute electricity for steam on a large scale. This road was known to be constructing a four-track line, but it was not to be equipped with special reference to the use of electricity instead of steam to power the freight and passenger cars over the portion of the line between Worcester and New Haven, a distance of seventy-four miles. When the plant is ready the distance between the two cities will be covered in sixty minutes.

Tragedy That Disturbed a Chicago Wedding Party—Ohio Convicts Attempt to Break Out—Brother Kills Brother—French Criminal Extradited—General Criminal News and Brevities.

CHICAGO, July 19.—While a wedding ceremony was being conducted in the residence of John McHenry, at the corner of State and Forty-ninth streets, last night, a woman's cries for help stopped the festivities. Jacob Ewald, who was attending the wedding, together with Adam Saranda, hastened to the former's house near by, and there they found Mrs. Gustina Ewald in a front upstairs room, where she had been forced by an unknown man. Ewald broke open the door, which had been locked from the inside, and followed by Saranda, seized his wife's assailant by the throat, dragging him to the room where the wedding was taking place. The Governor is now at sea. But little time remains to prepare the exhibit, and with new men at the helm it is not known how much will be accomplished before the opening of the great exposition. It is thought that the money already on hand will be put into exhibits in the various department buildings, and that the building will be constructed. At any rate the State has $75,000 which must be expended at Chicago, and something will be provided to show for this sum.

Katie Krump Revenges Herself on a Rival—Judge Paxson's Callers.

Katie Krump, colored, was fined $300 in the Second District Police Court this morning by default for disturbing the peace. On July 5 a number of colored people had given a big lawn party at Goods and Kinner's avowed residence. Katie and Clara Winkler, who were taken to the dispensary, where her injuries were pronounced dangerous, but not mortal.

Hand was taken to Justice Kane's office and attended by Dr. F. L. Priest. The examination found that no veins or arteries were severed and sewed up the wounds.

The Deputy Constable Hand was taken to the Four Courts, and when the facts in the case were made known was released.

Chief Dispensary Surgeon Dr. Priest examined the constable and said the ball went clear through his body, penetrating the right lung, and that the negro was bleeding internally and was in a dangerous condition.

The Wilson woman produced the shreds of a dress as evidence in court this morning.

John Best pleaded guilty in the Criminal Court this morning to having burglarized Patrick Noland's shop on St. Ferdinand street, of some tools and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Three other prisoners, namely, Ralph Scott, Fred Cooper and Peter Basler, then decided to follow suit and examine the case. Scott was given three years for burglarizing a residence on King's highway. Cooper got one year and Basler six months in the work-house for stealing a cow.

Weather forecast for thirty-six hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for Missouri. Shows high pressure in the Upper Mississippi Valley, where the weather will be fair, cloudless skies prevail at nearly all stations west of the Mississippi River. One area of low pressure is central north of Lake Superior, another is located in Eastern Montana. The high pressure still overrules the southern States. The river will still continue to fall.

Weather forecast for thirty-six hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for St. Louis: Fair, continued high temperatures.

The notification of CLEVELAND and STEVENSON will be a popular event, and their election will be like unto it.

A DELEGATE with the courage of his Democracy could be of great value to his party in the Jefferson City convention.

A MURDER trial in Homestead would not be complete without ANDREW CARNEGIE and his man FRICK among the defendants.

MR. CLEVELAND will use a cuspider when standing on the Democratic platform. This is what the Hoyt letter means.

WITH the aid of MR. STEVENSON's experience Mr. CLEVELAND may be able to find a congratulatory letter from Senator HILL in his waste-basket.

THE HON. NICHOLAS BELL found a truth to fit his large fine voice when he said: "The country wants CLEVELAND." The country generally gets what it wants.

THE President seems to think that no man is fit to be a Republican who is bigger and greater than BENJAMIN HARRISON. This opinion is unquestionably correct.

It is said that Senator HILL will not attend the ratification ceremonies at Madison Square Garden to-morrow. His arduous duties in the Senate demand his attention.

ISN'T it odd that nobody but an officeholder could be found to manage HARRISON's campaign? He seems to have little or no support outside the ranks of his hired men.

CHAIRMAN OATES wishes to give the Pinkertons a hearing. They should be given a hearing in a trial for premeditated murder every time they accept hire as professional killers.

CHAIRMAN CARTER is the only one of the thirteen Republicans to whom the chairmanship was offered who believed he could carry his own State; and even he is not very certain.

WARRANTS for the arrest of the men who shot the Pinkertons at Homestead should be accompanied by warrants for the arrest of the men who employed the Pinkertons to shoot citizens of Pennsylvania.

THE candidates who told the readers of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH all about the Democratic State Convention will be able to impart more accurate information in briefer form to-morrow or next day.

ONCEAULY Mayor and Private Secretary "JIM" BRENNAN is said to have snubbed the Governor when he met him on the street in Jefferson City. Well, why shouldn't he? The Governor is not in his "sassiest" circle.

FAMINE and pestilence are powerful rivals to the Czar's rule in imposing misery upon the Russians. But they have the advantage over it in that while they increase the misery for a time they put an end to a large part of it forever.

REPRESENTATIVE BAILEY was not the first to refuse pay for a day on which he did not work. The man set him this good example was Senator DAVID B. HILL of New York, once prominently mentioned as a possible presidential candidate.

A SUBSCRIBER, who does not even give his name as a guarantee of good faith, asks us to print over the signature of "iron-worker" a letter for our "Forum" making some very sweeping charges of criminal conduct and criminal intent against labor unions in general and the Amalgamated Association in particular. A good deal of latitude of opinion is allowed to writers in our "Forum" column, but ordinary prudence rules out accusatory matter for the truth of which no man is willing to vouch, even in a private note giving his name and address to the editor.

MURDER AT HOMESTEAD.

If the Homestead men had killed anybody while resisting a Sheriff's posse or a body of militia acting under the Sheriff's orders, there would have been a strong case against every locked out workman who participated in such resistance and did any shooting.

But a battle between the citizens of a town and a Pinkerton army, organized in another State and unlawfully invading the town as if to levy war upon its citizens, is quite another thing, in fact and in law.

Under the law of Missouri all who procured or participated in such an invasion would have been criminals and any citizen who resisted and repelled it with arms would have been engaged simply in upholding the laws of his State and protecting the homes of its people from unlawful menace.

The difference between the laws of Missouri and those of Pennsylvania on this subject is not such as to make the shooting of a Pinkerton by a burgher any more murder than the shooting of a burgher by a Pinkerton.

The burghers were at home, surrounded by their wives and children. They are there now surrendering themselves to be tried for what they did.

But the Pinkertons—whence came they, who can produce their muster roll and where are they now?

By having a thousand citizens arrested on murder warrants under these circumstances Mr. CARNEGIE will impose on the State the expense of vainly arraigning a populous borough on the charge of murder. If a grand-jury indicts a thousand burghers a jury of the vicinage will be sure to acquit every man of them.

On the other hand, if any of the Pinkertons are caught and indicted for the murder of the burghers who were killed in battle, Mr. CARNEGIE will not dare trust their case to a jury of that vicinity.

There is good ground for expecting that the result of these trials will put an end to Pinkertonism in America, and teach our tariff barons to look to the law and its regular instrumentalities for the protection of their property and rights, not to any unlawful private army of hired killers who vanish as soon as their murderous work is done.

SECRETARY LOVEJOY of the Carnegie Co. announces his determination to swear out warrants for murder against the strikers at the rate of twelve or fifteen a day. He claims to have good cases against 1,000 men. Then he adds this significant statement: "This thing is not a bluff. We mean to go to the end. Should we come across a man who had no hand in the mischief, whatever, we might make no information, provided the man showed his repentance and came to us for his old place." That is he will not procure indictments for murder against men whom he knows to be innocent if they will go to work for the Carnegie Co. for whatever he is willing to pay them. This is as frankly insolent as anything yet heard from the Carnegie crew. They evidently think the American people are fools, as Mr. CARNEGIE and his men are.

ELEVENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION TO-MORROW.

AN item in a deficiency bill appropriating $5,000 for the widow of the late Senator PLUMB has been stricken out at the request of her son, who asserts that his mother does not want Government aid. In this day of treasury-grabbing this instance of honest independence is worthy of admiring note.

EDITOR WILKINS of Ohio predicts that the People's party will poll 100,000 votes in Missouri. This is a high figure, but the tendency to folly displayed this year by the Democratic party of Missouri makes it possible that the reputation of Editor WILKINS as a political prophet may be

IT will be noted that while the Mayor insists he does not want re-election to the State Committee, his friends insist that he must have it. Thus again is illustrated the useless struggle of the modest statesman to avoid honor which his friends ruthlessly thrust upon him.

Splitting the Northwest.

The majority against the Republicans in Minnesota in 1890 was 56,000.

Allowing the most extravagant claims of Republicanism, that majority is not less than 25,000 or 30,000 to-day.

What folly it would be for such a majority, by dividing its forces, to let the Republican minority capture and count the electoral vote of the last Legislature left to the disposal of that party in the State. The primaries held in the Fifth, Seventh, Ninth, Eleventh, Thirteenth and Twenty-third Wards in this city yesterday resulted in a sweeping victory for Richard Bartholdt, with the exception of the Thirteenth Ward, which was carried by W. M. Kinsey. This is the ward in which Kinsey lives, and he won it easy, thereby preventing Bartholdt securing the nomination by the St. Louis city vote alone. The Thirteenth Ward has eight delegates, giving to Bartholdt fifty-two, the balance of sixty, the number to be chosen by the St. Louis city wards are entitled to him.

QUEER POLITICAL TACTICS.

In some of the wards yesterday no Kinsey delegate tickets were put out, and in consequence the Bartholdt men had walkovers. In the Fifth Ward two tickets were voted for, but both were to have been composed of Bartholdt men. One was known as the Bruck and the other the Becker ticket, the former being successful. The two tickets are believed to have been brought out because of a rivalry between the two leaders, both of whom wished to be Congressional Committee.

The following is a summary of the result of the primaries, the number of delegates to which each is entitled:

Fifth Ward—Two Bartholdt tickets, Bruck 26; Becker 28. Thirteen delegates.

Sixth Ward—Bartholdt, 26; Kinsey, 11. Eleven delegates.

Ninth Ward—Bartholdt ticket only; delegates.

Eleventh Ward—Bartholdt, 52; Kinsey, 10; delegates.

Thirteenth Ward—Bartholdt, 57; Bartholdt, 13. Delegates.

Total—Bartholdt, 92; Kinsey, 8.

CONVENTION MARKS UP.

There will be 112 delegates entitled to seats in the convention, of which number 57 will be from the St. Louis city, 20 from the county and 35 from the state.

What ails the People's party men? Upon some points they are not agreed. But they are agreed in their hostility to McKinleyism—the one overshadowing issue of the campaign—and they are of one mind in their conviction that the supreme duty at present is to cast out the Republican party and all that stands for power in the nation.

They can accomplish this by fusion upon a mixed electoral ticket. They can elect such a ticket while neither side can elect a ticket of its own. Fusion is manifestly the dictate of policy and patriotism, and there is little doubt that a fusion will be made.

A closely similar state of things exists in Kansas, Nebraska and the two Dakotas and in all of these States successful fusion is now deemed probable.

SUNDAY IN CHICAGO.

From the Chicago Times.

What a regal Sodom and Gomorrah rolled into one Chicago! Sodom and Gomorrah rolled into one Chicago! Sodom and Gomorrah rolled into one Chicago! The World's Fair is open to all but the parks were crowded and during a portion of the day visitors were even seen to enter the public library. This condition of affairs calls for the reformatory efforts of Senator Quay.

SUNDAY SHAVING.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I claim to be a real barber, one born and reared in this city, and feel that I have a right to express myself upon the barbers' Sunday closing movement. In your issue of the 16th inst. I notice an article relating to the subject, which in the main is manifestly incorrect. First, the article says we have but 740 local shops, when in fact we have about 2,800 barber shops in the corporation, most of them owned by German-Americans. But the article goes on to say that the Sunday closing movement is not supported by 62. Now, 62 does not represent more than one-fourth, or about that, of the 2,800 barber shops in the city and, in all candor, I would say that the 62 is not even one-tenth of the boss barbers of the city, and that if they will stand up and have their numbers counted, they will not put out 62, and that is the reason I say that and some of them bootblacks besides. I am opposed to closing on Sunday. Instructions for the day to the men who do not observe it, for the time being, are as follows:

HOME RULE BARRED

Gladstone Can Do Nothing With His Slender Majority.

THE NEW PREMIER MUST OUTLINE HIS PROGRAMME.

Many Difficulties Beset the Path of the Liberals—Silver Currency Scarce in Italy—Sharp Reply of the Amer to Lord Lansdowne—An Anarchist Determined to Die.

London, July 19.—The Government must meet the new Parliament and leave it to Mr. Gladstone to ask the House of Commons to vote no confidence in the ministry, but it does not follow that he will succeed in carrying such a vote on the address. The Nationalists may move to amend his resolution that the House refuses to withdraw confidence in Lord Salisbury till it can repossess confidence in Mr. Gladstone, and it cannot do this till it knows the course Mr. Gladstone intends to pursue in the event of his accession to power. Such an amendment would raise the whole question of the particular meaning of home rule. Mr. Gladstone is meditating, and it is obvious that the anti-Parnellites would then be forced to compel him to make in the House the disclosures which he has so far refused to make to the country. This would be a natural, logical and legitimate piece of tactics, and the Parnellites would be wanting in devotion to Mr. Parnell's memory and in obedience to his counsels if they do not adopt it. They have personal wrongs to avenge, and cannot be expected to support Mr. Gladstone until they know something about the Parnellites.

If Mr. Gladstone refuses to be frank and candid then he can refuse to vote for him, and will fail to carry a vote of want of confidence, or will carry it so absurdly small a majority as to make his accession to office appear to be a mere farce. The Parnellites will then call on the seats of nominal adherents, to tell the House what sort of Irish Parliament he wishes to create, he would immediately find himself in this practical dilemma.

Either the plan would dissipate the Nationalists or it would be too moderate and too safe, and would not suffice. This is what renders it doubtful whether Mr. Gladstone can carry a vote for want of confidence, if at all, by more than a light majority. It would then remain for the Government to decide whether to resign or to continue to hold out, and to go to the country. The Government, therefore, must stand its ground and invite Mr. Gladstone to do his worst.

The Daily News, commenting on Mr. Gladstone's slogan, states that "the house must be given up to the Scotch and Scotch supporters." This is what renders it doubtful whether Mr. Gladstone can carry a vote for want of confidence, if at all, by more than a light majority. It would then remain for the Government to decide whether to resign or to continue to hold out, and to go to the country. The Government, therefore, must stand its ground and invite Mr. Gladstone to do his worst.

MEXICAN MATTERS.

EIGHT PRISONERS KILLED BY A STROKE OF LIGHTNING.

City of Mexico, July 19.—The Warden of the Penitentiary at Zacoalco, reports that the Friday three prisoners, who were serving life sentences for robbery, were instantly killed by an electric discharge during the progress of a thunder storm and ten others were made insane by it. Five of the number having since died from the lightning.

The selling of opium continues unabated at Vera Cruz, and the rate of mortality is alarmingly large. Hundreds of people are leaving the city. In the foreign colony there have been many deaths, and those who can afford to pay the high prices and power to endow a church, reminds him that the Legislature of an American State is not subordinate to the National Congress, but in its own sphere is absolutely independent, and yet the State has no right to impose an ecclesiastical establishment or impose duties on the admission of goods from other States.

AIDING RUSSIA'S POOR.

St. Petersburg, July 18.—A grand reception was given to the Russian Ambassador to-day by the officers of the steamer Lee from New York, which recently arrived at this port with a large quantity of food for the starving peasants in the famine-stricken sections of the country. A richly-bound address of thanks for the food and time given to the stricken people was presented to the Ambassador. Addresses were made by a number of those present, including Dr. Talmaige and Count Borskiy, who is a Councillor of State, and who also holds high offices.

DETERMINED TO DIE.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—Ages Walnitz, the anarchist agitator who was recently sentenced to ten months' imprisonment for less majestic, but still dangerous, acts, has determined to starve himself to death.

The authorities have consequently ordered that she be fed by force. Two warders hold her and force her mouth open while they introduce food through a tube.

DEATHS FROM CHOLERA.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—Nine deaths from cholera occurred on board a steamer between Astrakhan and Kazan. During the last three days seventeen persons have died from the disease on the Trans-Caucasian Railway.

BRIEF CABLEGRAMS.

There was a plot between Parnellites and anti-Parnellites to tip the scales last night. Much damage to property resulted and several persons were badly injured.

The Queen has gone to Osborne and the Prince and Princess of Battenberg have started for the continent.

Charles Parnell, son of the late King of Abyssinia, was arraigned in London to-day for threatening a betting man with whom he had a quarrel. Not being able to secure bondsome for his good behavior he was sent to prison for three months.

WHAT THEY PROPOSE TO DO.

The object of the association is to rid St. Louis to such an extent as is practicable of the smoke about which there is now a universal complaint. The association in order to do so has to employ such devices and means as are used in other metropolitan cities which have extensive manufacturing interests. The association has been growing daily since its inception and already numbers 200 members. The committee has met with representatives from the leading business men in the city as well as the people generally.

At the meeting yesterday the advisability of asking the City Council to pass an ordinance to all the business men which the association has accomplished was discussed and the plan approved, and Councillor W. T. Anderson, who is a member of the association and was also present at the meeting, agreed to offer a bill Friday next to the Council to have the ordinance to cover the needs of the association.

The secretary read a letter from the Chicago society for the promotion of smoke-free air, and that the scheme was thoroughly practicable but had been tested and found in every way a success.

The association has agreed to contribute to the society to help it in its work.

Henry Elliott of Chicago, architect of the new County Court-house, was a business man in the city yesterday.

Peter J. Parsons, superintendent of the Chicago Schools, is visiting in the city.

D. B. Buckner and Samuel D. Noe, candidates respectively for Congressman-at-Large and State Auditor on the Prohibition ticket, will address a ratification meeting in this city this evening.

Hillsboro—Mad Dog Scare.

Hillsboro, July 19.—Running and trotting races take place at the Hillsboro Driving Park July 28 and 29.

The Democrats of Pleasant Mount Township, Bond County, have met at Smithsburg and organized a campaign club, with W. R. Duncan, President; James Barr, Secretary, and F. A. Miller, Treasurer.

The American Unitarian Association of Hillsboro, an appendage of the Central Illinois Unitarian Association, has its territory being all the counties composing what is known as the Central Illinois area.

Henry Elliott of Chicago, architect of the new County Court-house, was a business man in the city yesterday.

Peter J. Parsons, superintendent of the Chicago Schools, is visiting in the city.

D. B. Buckner and Samuel D. Noe, candidates respectively for Congressman-at-Large and State Auditor on the Prohibition ticket, will address a ratification meeting in this city this evening.

Cass County Teachers.

Virginia, July 19.—Yesterday the twentieth annual meeting of the Cass County Teachers' Institute opened here, and will remain in session for two weeks.

Clark County Republicans.

Marshall, Ill., July 19.—The Clark County Republicans will meet Aug. 1 to nominate a county ticket. There is talk of a fusion with the People's party being made.

J. B. Kennard's Wife Receives $50 From the "Sunday Post-Dispatch."

Yesterday Mrs. Josephine Kennard was paid $50, it being the twenty-second payment on a SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH accident coupon. Her husband, J. B. Kennard, lost his left foot by an accident while in the employ of the Merchants' Elevator, on June 16, last. He had at the time a four-dollar accident coupon with him and his claim of $50 having been duly proven was paid his wife. The following affidavits tell the story:

Josephine Kennard being by me duly sworn, on her oath, states that her husband, J. B. Kennard, residing at 3911 St. Ferdinand street, St. Louis, has the lower part of his left foot amputated at the Merchants' Elevator, on June 16, 1892, "causing and inflicting upon him such an injury that the coupon was found on his person at the time of the accident."

Eloped With a Blacksmith.

Joseph Desper, a carpenter residing on Second and Valentine streets, appeared at the Four Courts yesterday and reported the alleged elopement of his wife Susan with Joseph Ball, a blacksmith. Mrs. Desper, a handsome woman of 25 years, disappeared Sunday, leaving her two children, a boy 3 years old and a baby girl but 4 months old. Desper claims that he learned just after leaving his shop that his wife was with a blacksmith who, from the description, he is sure was Joseph Ball. Before becoming a blacksmith, Ball cleared in a grocery near Desper's home.

Mrs. A. Brinkman, nee Stodler, swore out a warrant for abandonment against her husband, Louis Brinkman yesterday. Mrs. Brinkman was seduced by Brinkman on April 20, 1890, under promise of marriage, but he refused to marry her and left the city, when she procured a warrant against him for seduction. About three weeks ago he was arrested on a farm about seven miles outside the city, and was taken into custody while he married her last Tuesday. The charge of seduction was the following day nolle prossed, and Brinkman immediately deserted his bride.

RANK OF TAMMANY.

A Turf Expert Who Thinks the Colt
Another Hanover.

MARCUS DALY'S CRACK HAS NOT YET BEEN THOROUGHLY TRIED.

National Whist Congress in New York—
St. Louis Plays a Fourteen-Inning
Draw Game with Brooklyn—Boston
Loses to Pittsburgh—Racing, Pugilism and Sporting News in General.

It seems probable just now that Tammany is a colt of the class of Hanover, Hindoo's celebrated son, writes Arthur F. Bowers. Hanover ran only twice as a 2-year-old and won both races. As a 3-year-old he swept everything before him until the Monmouth season was far advanced. He took up heavy weight penalties, ran away from such a colt as Kingston, and scored a most conspicuous and brilliant series of victories; but his owners, the Dwyers, asked too much of him; every kept racing him under excessive weights, and at long distances, without giving him any necessary interval for rest and recuperation. The result was that he was defeated in the latter part of the Monmouth season by Lagger, and some other horses that he would have been able to vanquish easily earlier in the year. Now, in several stances Hanover ran as brilliantly and triumphantly as Tammany has run this year. It may be, of course, that in Tammany the American Turf is fortunate enough to be favored with the presence of another Luke Blackburn, another Hindoo, another Salvator; but on the other hand, it may be that Tammany, good colt as he is, may prove to be no better than Hanover was, and Hanover certainly did not rank with the three famous champions just named.

The fact that Tammany was defeated in four out of his six races as a 2-year-old does not, however, make it impossible that he will prove himself to be the best horse of his age in the United States. Luke Blackburn, a 2-year-old, was defeated in every race on the fifteen starts, and although Hindoo won nearly all of his 2-year-old races, still he knew what it was to suffer defeat as a youngster. Salvator was vanquished by Proctor Knott as a 2-year-old, but in the following year he was far superior to Proctor Knott. Of course, the record of the 2-year-old of the century, the Ormonde, the unapproachable creature that comes out only at long intervals, is never beaten; he is always and everywhere victorious.

MARCUS DALY'S STABLE.

Marcus Daly is doing extremely well with his 3-year-olds this year. Tammany is by far the greatest winner among the American 3-year-olds in 1892. Both Shellback and Sir Matthew have also won races. There is every reason to expect that Tammany will add tens of thousands of dollars to the amount of his earnings before the year is out. Sir Matthew is also practically certain to carry off a number of prizes within the next few weeks. But unless Mr. Daly has a remarkable 3-year-old in reserve, about which the public know nothing, his chances for a record 3-year-old start of 1892 do not appear to be at all tempting. Such 2-year-olds as Rightaway, Shelley Tuttle, The Bell, and others are not of the Tammany class, and are not in the first class to carry off any such stakes as the realization.

LACK OF FIRST-CLASS 2-YEAR-OLDS.

Turf-writers in England express a great deal of admiration of the 2-year-olds in that country this year, say Arthur F. Bowers. They say that an amazingly large number of excellent youngsters have been seen in England, and no doubt some of the fine points and fillies in reserve. American turfmen, on the other hand, are inclined to lament the absence of conspicuous merit among the 2-year-olds and the lack of form and dash in this country. It is the prevailing opinion that the 2-year-olds of England are far superior to those of the United States in the art of running up to the standard. Several performers may come to view later that will modify existing impressions. It is certainly to be hoped that they for the first time will be of the great 2-year-old stakes next year cannot be considered very encouraging.
